Senior Senator from Empire State Asserts President Does Not Wait for Approval of the Newspapers, Thereby Differing from Politicians. Representatives Speak.

At the reunion and dance of the New York State Club, of Washington, held in Carroll Institute Hall last evening, Senator Chauncey M. "At the other end of the Avenue we have a President who is perfecting the plans outlined by Theodore Roosevelt. He recognizes that public safety requires that the government shall have a hand in controlling every operation of a corporation doing an interstate business. He is different from the politician, in that he has always been a judge.

"A politician tells the newspapers what he has done it.

"As the American people have better opportunity to judge of his character and motives, his sterling integrity, his judicial bearing, his eminent ability, his courage, and his intense love of humanity, the impression will grow upon them, until at the expiration of his term of service I look for a unanimous verdict that there has never been a saner, wiser, Senator Depew curried favor with his audience with a number of stories, told in his best style, and said Theodore Roosevelt was yesterday paying his respects to Rameses the Great. Representative Poindexter Declares Bill Passed by House Will Remove National Disgrace if Favorably Acted Upon by Senate-Discrimination Against Uniform Condemned.

Discrimination against soldiers and sailors in uniform, proposed raising of the Maine, the Maine monument, and evils of colonial possessions were the subjects of spirited addresses by Representative Poindexter, Admiral Sigsbee, Maj. Then he spoke of the recent occurrence at a local theater as an act calling for litter condemnation. He hinted at the evils of our colonial possessions, but declared they are accepted as a necessary onsequence of war.
